

THE TABERNACLE SERMON NOTES

SCRIPTURE SUMMARY

The world has been plagued by conquest, war, famine and death since the Fall of man. The last century alone was the bloodiest in human history. But the worst is yet to come, when God's wrath against the sin of mankind is finally unleashed.

The Four Horsemen

The Lamb is in control.

The Lamb has every right to judge the world.

The Lamb is our only hope.

Trust the Lamb.

Weekly Passage

Revelation 6:1-8

WHAT DOES IT SAY?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Contextual Questions

- What do each of the four horsemen represent?
- Is the wrath in this section of scripture a total or controlled wrath? Why is this important?
- Where do we see shadows of the four horsemen in the world today?

SMALL GROUP NOTES

GROUND RULES

What's said in a group stays in the group.

Vulnerability is necessary to build relationships that allow us to confess sin. That doesn't happen without a level of confidentiality. Another's confession is not dinner conversation.

Hold yourself and others accountable.

As iron sharpens iron, one man sharpens another. We allow the Holy Spirit to be the Holy Spirit, but we hold each other accountable to pursue righteousness. To do this we must first examine ourselves.

Show Me.

We wrestle with the Word. Often we see things differently. We call these small rocks, but God's Word always has the final say.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN FOR ME?

Application Questions

- How does reading about the coming tribulation affect the way you view the character of God?
- Does God having the right to judge the world bring you a sense of unrest, or peace? Why?
- Is your daily life marked with the hope that only comes from Jesus?
- Are you trusting Jesus for your eternity and your today?

CHALLENGE:

What am I going to do now?

- Look for opportunities this week that you can choose to trust and worship Jesus.
