

THE TABERNACLE SERMON NOTES

REVOLUTION | DEATH, ESCAPE AND A RECKONING | ACTS 12:1-25

What happens when earthly power tries to silence God's people—and the church responds on its knees? This message explores a dramatic chapter that reminds us who truly holds the final word.

SMALL GROUP NOTES

GROUND RULES

What's said in a group stays in the group.

Encourage others and hold yourself accountable.

Where is it written in the Bible?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

- Why do you think opposition is a consistent theme in the life of believers, and why is prayer described as 'going to war' in the face of opposition?

- What does Peter's miraculous release from prison reveal about God's heart and power to deliver His people?

- How does Herod's sudden judgment illustrate God's sovereign justice and authority over human pride and rebellion?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN FOR ME?

- What chains have you seen God break in your life or the lives of others (physical, emotional, spiritual) and how does this encourage your faith?

- Are there areas in your life where you feel bound or trapped? How can you invite God to break those chains?

- How does knowing that God ultimately settles accounts impact how you deal with injustice in your own life?
