

REVOLUTION | THE GOSPEL DIVIDES | ACTS 13:13-52

The gospel isn't just a message of hope – it's a message that demands a response. In Acts 13, we see how the good news about Jesus draws a clear line of division that reveals hearts, challenges assumptions, and calls everyone to choose.

GROUND RULES

What's said in a group stays in the group.

Encourage others and hold yourself accountable.

Where is it written in the Bible?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

- Why do Christians get fickle about following God's calling — and how can we encourage one another when it's difficult?

- Why is being saved by grace through faith difficult for people to accept, and how does it confront our pride?

- What do the responses to the Gospel in Acts 13:42-52 reveal about the condition of their hearts?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN FOR ME?

- How can we encourage one another to stay committed to Christ, even when people around us drift or walk away?

- What are some signs that you might be slipping into a “works mindset” rather than a gospel of grace through faith?

- How can you stay faithful in sharing your faith, being a domino, even when people respond negatively?
