

REVOLUTION | WOLVES ARE COMING | ACTS 20:13-38

Danger is always ahead, and not all threats are obvious. Sometimes the danger to your faith is in your own heart or the voices that you trust. In Paul's farewell address to Ephesians, we discover how to stand firm when trouble is on the horizon.

GROUND RULES

What's said in a group stays in the group.

Encourage others and hold yourself accountable.

Where is it written in the Bible?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

- Read Proverbs 4:23. Why is “guarding your heart” the first importance, and how is it connected to your whole life?

---

- Read 1 Thessalonians 5:14. What do the ways listed reveal about how we should watch out and care for others?

---

---

- Read 2 Timothy 4:3-4. What does this reveal about the relationship between our desires and deception?

---

WHAT DOES IT MEAN FOR ME?

- How do you respond when the Spirit directs you toward a difficult but right choice, like Paul towards Jerusalem?

---

- In what areas of your heart or life do you need to be more vigilant—your attitudes, desires, actions or thoughts?

---

---

- Who in your life needs encouragement, correction, or support right now? How can you do that with love and patience?

---

- How can staying close to the Shepherd (Jesus) help you recognize deception before it harms you or the church?
