

PSALMS: VOLUME ONE | HONEST PRAYER | PSALM 13

What do we do when God feels distant, silent, or slow to respond? Honest prayer, bringing our questions and fears to God, is where He meets us, shapes our faith, deepens our relationship and our trust in Him.

MAIN POINTS, QUESTIONS OR THINGS THAT STUCK OUT TO YOU:

GROUND RULES: Encourage others and hold yourself accountable.
What is said within a group stays in the group. | Where is it written in the Bible?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

In Psalm 13, what does the raw honesty of David's prayer reveal about his relationship with God?

Why do you think David chooses to trust, rejoice, and sing (vs 5-6) before his situation changes?

What does the movement of Psalm 13, and the "spaces" between honesty, asking, and trust reveal about the nature of spiritual transformation?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN FOR ME?

What emotions or struggles do you need to bring honestly before God in prayer?

What is one area of your life where God is inviting you to trust Him more deeply?

How can you grow in seeing prayer as a relationship with God, and not just a request for answers?
