

PSALMS: VOLUME ONE | THE WAY HOME | PSALM 15-16

We all know the feeling of longing for home, but what if that longing points to something deeper? In Psalms 15 and 16, David asks who can dwell with God and ultimately points us to the only One who makes it possible.

MAIN POINTS, QUESTIONS OR THINGS THAT STUCK OUT TO YOU:

[illegible]

FURTHER STUDY:

Cross References, Resources, etc.

- Leviticus 19:2; Matthew 5:48; Romans 3:21-26; 2Corinthians 5:21; Philippians 3:8-9; 1 Peter 3:18

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS:

GROUND RULES: Encourage others and hold yourself accountable.
What is said within a group stays in the group. | Where is it written in the Bible?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Why do you think righteousness is God's requirement to dwell in His presence?

How does Jesus provide the righteousness we cannot earn?

What does Jesus' resurrection make possible for those who trust in Him?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN FOR ME?

Where do you tend to rely on your own goodness instead of trusting in Jesus' righteousness?

How does knowing Jesus is the way home change the way you view your relationship with God?

How should the hope of being with God forever shape the way you live today?
